

I disagree with the FCC action to replace the Wisconsin No-Call Program with the Federal Program. The Wisconsin Program has far better protection for consumers. The Federal Program has too many exceptions and allows telemarketers many loopholes to continue to solicit consumers who do not want the calls.